The brutality with which Chinese brothel keepers treat their purchased girls is wel known in Hongkong, where some flagrant cases were exposed several years since. Happily for the inmates of these establishments. such devices for their protection from oppression or ill-treatment have been framed by the Registrar-General that we now hear of no cases of the kind. The girls are made thoroughly well aware of the fact that their mistresses can acquire no property in them by purchase, and that they can leave a house at any moment if they wish to do so, so that in upon it by publishing only an abridged prosthere is good ground to hope the days of oppression and brothel slavery are past in this it up somewhat for the benefit of the public. FEOR OUR OWS CORRESPONDENT. 10th September. There is very little news of interest stirring here just now. The American mail by some miscalculation was put on board the Taichoic on the 23rd August. The Danube left on the 25th, and grow paddy or bunt game, on the ground that met the Taichow at Swatow. There the Taichow was ordered to Singapore, while the Danube came direct, discharged her cargo, and leaves on her return trip to-morrow. Meanwhile the Taichow with our mails remains in Singapore, and may not be here for some days. Do not consider me as finding fault.
